Local News Gleanings Condensed for Hasty Perusal.

Colder again. Fall ice houses. Diminishing snow drifts. The sleighing is done for. After the snow comes the slush and mud. May be we'll have an open summer, anyhow. Farmers are hunting up their seeds for spring planting. For cleaning the streets of snow, "Old Sol" is hard to beat. The ladies are already figuring on that spring bonnet. So is papa and hubby. Those harbingers of spring, the street plaes, will soon be putting in their appearance. Some one says ice will be dear next summer, because it was frozen so hard it was hard to cut. March, June, August and October are the only months in the year 1895 that are without a holiday. May 30, Decoration Day, is observed as a legal and popular holiday in all but some of the Southern states. To day is Shrove Tuesday, or Fastnacht day. Lent will begin to-morrow.

Ten days loss of time on account of a sickness and a doctor bill to pay, is anything but pleasant for a man of a family to contemplate, whether he is a laborer, mechanic, merchant or publisher. Jas. O. Jones, publisher of the Leader, Mexico, Texas, was sick in bed for ten days with the grip during its prevalence a year or two ago. Later in the season he had a second attack. He says: "In the latter case I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with considerable success. I think, only being in bed a little over two days. The second attack I am satisfied would have been equally as bad as the first but for the use of this remedy." It should be borne in mind that the grip is much the same as a very severe cold and requires precisely the same treatment. When you wish to cure a cold quickly and effectually give this remedy a trial. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

A Resolution Adopted Eulogistic of the Late Frederick Douglass.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 26.—The legislature reconvened last evening, after a ten days' recess, and disposed of a vast amount of routine business. The governor's veto of the bill relating to certain degrees of registers of wills in courts of appeals from decrees of registers was sustained. The consideration of the veto of bills for additional law judges for Washington and Westmoreland counties was postponed until today. A resolution was adopted eulogistic of the patriotic services rendered the country and the negro race by Frederick Douglass.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Page, of Dauphin, to create a middle penitentiary district, including the counties of Potter, Tioga, Bradford, Sullivan, Lycoming, Northumberland, Columbia, Montour, Fulton, Bedford, Cumberland, Franklin, Adams, Somerset, Blair, Cambria, Huntingdon, Union, Lebanon, Perry, Juniata, Mifflin, Clearfield, Clinton and Centre. The penitentiary is to be located at or near Harrisburg. The bill provides for the appointment by the governor of a commission to select a site and appropriate $100,000 for the purchase of the ground.

Among other bills introduced were: Making it a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $25 or ten days' imprisonment, or both, for making false representations to assessors and tax collectors; providing that train robbery, or any attempt by train robbers by obstructing tracks, be punishable by death; compelling street railway companies to protect their employes from the weather by proper devices, to heat their cars and use feeders; making having a conspiracy, punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Among the bills presented in the senate were: To provide for the election of two additional judges of the supreme court, and to divide that court into two parts. To establish a court of appeals, to consist of five members.

Cannot Suppress a Lecture.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 25.—A committee of twelve leading members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians waited on Mayor Myers and presented him with a petition signed by about 500 members of that order and other Catholics. The petition stated that it had been learned that ex-Priest Slatery and his wife, who is an ex-nun, would lecture here tonight on Catholicism, and that the signers were satisfied that if they were allowed to speak trouble, disorder and riot would prevail. In the interest of peace and order they consequently appealed to him not to allow them to lecture. Mayor Myers declared he had no authority to prevent the lecture, and advised Catholics to remain away from the hall if they did not care to hear the lecture peacefully.

Decided Against the Corporation.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 25.—Last year the Adams, United States and American Express companies, under the Ohio law, refused to pay the excise tax of 2 per cent. on their gross receipts in the state. The state brought suit to compel the companies to pay the tax and they filed a motion to quash the proceedings on the ground that they were organized under the laws of New York as partnerships, and not being corporations were not liable to the tax. Judge Pugh overruled the motion, holding that the companies are amenable to the law.

Queer Banking Methods in Minnesota.

LAKE CITY, Minn., Feb. 25.—The Merchants' bank is closed and in the hands of the public examiner. No information is obtainable as to the cause of the failure, the stockholders being ignorant up to the last moment of the state of affairs. The bank examiner has found that President Holmes has loaned himself between $80,000 and $100,000, while the capital stock was but $50,000 and the surplus but $6,000. Recently he could have loaned but $6,000. The bank will be dissolved.

AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR.

The Odd Fellows and Their Friends Have a Good Time.

The degree staff of Shenandoah Lodge No. 591, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, last evening gave an entertainment in the lodge room for the benefit of the members and their friends. There was a large attendance and the entertainment was very much enjoyed. The plantation quartette, composed of Messrs. W. J. Jacobs, Harry Reese, James Patterson and Jesse Hughes, appeared in black face and made a hit with their melodies and banjo, bones and tambourine accompaniments. The program was as follows: Prayer; "What a friend we have in Jesus," Johnson orchestra; "John, my boy, remember me," quartette; solo, Jesse Hughes; "Twilight visions," Johnson orchestra; "All Nations," quartette; solo, Wm. Waters; march, orchestra; "Talk About Your Moses," quartette; solo, William T. Trezise; "Golden Slipper," quartette; "Bonlanger's March," orchestra; solo, "Love Lies Bleeding," James Patterson; "Johnny Dolan's Cat," Harry Reese; "Loyal Legion March," orchestra; solo, William T. Trezise; "Old Hundred" by the orchestra and audience. Several of the members were honored. P. G. Robert A. Davenport was master of ceremonies and made an address. P. G. John G. Davis, P. G. Charles Hooks and William Draper, pioneer members of the lodge, also made addresses. This lodge has been unusually successful during the past year in the increase of its membership, and these entertainments are being given with the object of inviting a continuation of this success by showing to young men, whose presence is especially desired on these occasions, the advantages of Odd Fellowship. "591" orchestra, under the leadership of Elmer E. Johnson, again demonstrated its ability to interpret difficult themes and the quality of its performance was warmly attested by the audience. The solo singing was a pleasant feature, the work of Jesse Hughes and William T. Trezise in this respect receiving unqualified praise. The latter gentleman rendered one very appropriate selection that drew forth touching remarks from some of the members.

Benefit Entertainment.

Scanlan and Lurkin's Comedy Company will give a grand entertainment in Ferguson's theatre on March 4th, for the benefit of Samuel Thomas, an old soldier, who has suffered injury to his eyes and is disabled from earning support for his family, now in need of help. Mr. Thomas has been a resident of Shenandoah for twenty seven years and is well known and respected. The benefit should be well patronized. An excellent specialty entertainment will be given. Among the features will be an exhibition by William Thomas, who will dance barefooted upon a mass of broken glass. This exhibition will alone be worth the price of admission. Tickets can be had at Mr. Thomas' residence, 216 Huckleberry alley, or Kirlin's drug store.

Almost Severed.

Thomas Jones, the butcher, had his right hand badly cut while at work in Knoll's shop. He was cutting off a front quarter of veal when the hind quarter slipped from the hook and struck the large knife in such a manner as to cause it to fall across the index finger of his right hand almost severed it. Dr. Hamilton dressed the wound. Mr. Jones left to-day for Bloomsburg, to visit relatives pending the healing of the wound.

A FIREBUG'S CONFESSION.

Made a Business of Starting Fires to Secure Insurance.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The trial of Max H. Grauer, the fire insurance adjuster, alleged to be the leader of a band of firebugs, was continued yesterday in the court of general sessions. Simon Rosenbaum was cross-examined. He denied that he started a fire in Lynn, and then admitted that he was present when the fire referred to was started, and had his hands burned by the flames. He claimed that the gang of firebugs had been in Lynn in those days or that he was the leader of firebugs there. He knew that a man named Max Glueckman started a fire in Walker street. He was on the lookout when the fire was started, and got $50 for his work.

Rosenbaum denied that he was the intimate friend of Louis Wouffle, the firebug who committed suicide while awaiting trial in the Tombs. The witness, pale and trembling, then told of a series of fires that he had started or helped to start. Some of the houses where he had played the role of the incendiary were tenements, full of women and children. He recounted five fires whose origin could be laid to his door. Some of the fires he had set for others and was paid for the work; others he had set because he lived in the houses and had his effects heavily insured. He denied that he ever started a fire in Newark.

Again and again the witness related how he had signed a written contract with the elder Grauer, in the presence of witnesses, engaging him to obtain a man to burn his store in a building housing six families. In answer to a question of the defendant's lawyer the witness said that he considered himself an honest man, and that he could bring a hundred witnesses to prove it.

Business Rivalry and Murder.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 25.—Dr. Lee Payne, Jr., and Mr. Baxter Shemwell are both interested in the drug business here. This led to a duel on the street yesterday resulting in the death of Dr. Payne. Shemwell was arrested and put in jail after having defied the officers of the town and nearly fifty citizens for several hours.
